About the Role

Holycroft Primary School is part of the Northern Star Academies Trust. The school is situated in the centre of Keighley and works very closely with its community. Children are central to everything we do and staff, and parents and the wider community work together to ensure the highest quality provision for all our pupils.

The successful candidate will:

- provide support both personal and physical for a child with SEN needs.
- be committed to pupil achievement
- be able to work in partnership with colleagues to ensure learning is of the highest standard
- be innovative and hard working
- have good levels of literacy and numeracy
- have good communication skills
- be enthusiastic, patient and have a calm, fair manner.

We can offer:

- a team working together to develop excellence
- a positive school ethos that celebrates success
- enthusiastic and co-operative pupils
- the opportunity to make a real difference to children's lives.
